10 Powerful Conversation Starters to Teach Your Kids

RESPONSIBILITY

Discuss with your children, by asking these questions, how they can be persistent even when things get challenging or when they fail.

1 What kinds of jobs or chores do you do at home to help out?

2 Who are the people in your house that do the most work?

3 How does the way you were taught responsibility spill over into how responsible you are now?

4 What is a promise that you have made to your teacher/parents?

5 How can we teach those who we lead to own up to their mistakes, take responsibility and move forward with their lives?

6 Has anyone ever apologized to you for making a mistake? How did that make you feel?

7 What would you do if someone borrowed something and returned it dirty and ripped?

8 What does responsibility have to do with borrowing something?

9 When we don't make responsible choices, what kinds of choices do you think others make when they are with us?

10 If you were to advise emerging leaders on how they set up above and beyond, what would you say?
